Why Should You Be a Sponsor?

- Join our initial sponsors in supporting this historic event that will launch the Institute of Afrofuturist Studies at Temple University.
- Showcase your brand and expertise. Our partnerships host a combined 60,000+ subscribers that you can join who are actively involved in sharing a deep appreciation for the future of Blacks on our planet.

Our Mission

To create a network of researchers and futures/foresight practitioners focused on Black Futures. To foster a dialog and create a safe arena where Blacks, whites and others can focus seriously without fear, and focus in on Black Futures. Our mission is to plan for what the future may bring, identify what tools we should use, and connect those at the forefront working to develop and envision sustainable futures for us all.
